

Today

I will honour my talents by

---

because this is my unique contribution to the world

I have been given these talents and virtues to share with others

so that their life and mine may become richer

By not fulfilling my inner call I deny myself the joy of living up to my full potential

I have divinity within me, as do the rest of humanity, and by sharing my talents with others I receive so much more in return

Today I will help others using my talents by

---

because I am a unique, important and talented individual
